Join the Knights of Columbus and the Boy Scouts Troop 121 for an evening of fun and great food. We'll start with antipasto followed by a great Italian dinner cooked by the Knights. Flyers will be at the doors of the church.

Weather Alert!! It's that time again! If there is snow, ice or school has been cancelled or delayed, due to bad weather, please stay home.

There will be no weekday 8:30am service.

Due to concerns about bad weather and Holy Days of Obligation

We have had several people ask about snow and ice and Holy Days of Obligation. Father Crispin says "I will be there for whoever can make it. People need not risk anything to attend mass when it snows though."

Readings for January 1, 2017 year A Mary, Mother of Jesus

First Reading Numbers 6:22-27
"The Lord bless you and keep you!"

Psalm 67
"May God bless us in his mercy."

Second Reading Galatians 4:4-7
We too are the sons and daughters of God.

Gospel Luke 2:16-21
Mary reflected on all these things in her heart.

The sacred scriptures we hear proclaimed today continue our celebration of the Christmas season. We still have shepherds, Mary, Joseph, and Jesus at the manger in Bethlehem. The first reading recounts a very beautiful blessing from our ancient tradition, and Saint Paul proclaims that we are adopted children of God through Jesus Christ. Let us ponder these readings today, reflecting on them in our hearts.

Readings for January 8, 2017 year A The Epiphany of the Lord

1st Reading Isaiah 60:1-6
The glory of the Lord shines on all people.

Psalm 72 "Lord, every nation on earth will adore you."

2nd Reading Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6
God's secret plan is revealed.

Gospel Matthew 2:1-12
They presented gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

The refrain for our responsorial psalm sets the tone for today's readings, "Lord, every nation on earth will adore you." Saint Paul takes up the message: the Gentiles are co-heirs and copartners in the promise. Isaiah proclaims that "nations shall walk by your light." Did the magi come all that way just to see a little baby? No, they came to see the salvation of the whole world. Let us allow these readings today to broaden our horizons so that we see God everywhere, and learn to show God to everyone in our lives.
