

Our Version

On Saturday, April 8, 2017, the day before Palm Sunday, there will be a mini-pilgrimage in Seattle based loosely on the Camino de Santiago. We will walk and take Metro through seven Catholic churches, ending at St. James Cathedral. We will pray two stations at each church. Since our ending point is also a St. James Cathedral, we're borrowing the name and calling our mini-pilgrimage the Seattle Camino de Santiago.

Everyone is invited to join us for part or all of this small pilgrimage.
